(Joint Master Programmes of excellent quality offered by a consortium of EU/non EU Universities)

Webpage: http://ec.europa.eu/education/opportunities/higher-education/international-cooperation\_en.htm

What is it?

Joint master degrees (JMD) are delivered by an international consortium of higher education institutions – and where relevant – other educational and / non-educational partners with specific expertise and interest in the study area(s) / professional domain(s) covered by the joint programme.

What is the duration?

A JMD corresponds to a high-level integrated international study programme of 60, 90 or 120 ECTS.

Who can apply?

Students at Master's level, staff of the participating organisations, invited scholars (guest lecturers) from Programme and Participating countries.

Where do Joint Master Degrees take place?

In at least two of the Programme countries represented in the consortium, but part of the studies can also take place in a Partner country.

How many participants take part?

Between 13 and 20 student scholarship holders and 4 invited scholars/guest lecturers per intake can, indicatively, take part. In addition to the student scholarship holders, self-funded students can also be enrolled.

Where to apply?

Students or scholars should contact the consortium offering the Master Course for more information on courses and application procedures link outside the EC domain.
